

Privacy Policy for the Russ App 🐝

Introduction:

Welcome to the Russ App! We know privacy policies can be a snooze-fest, but stick with us—this one's got some personality. Rest assured, we value your privacy like we value a good honey stash (and trust us, we love honey).

Data Storage:

We save your data locally on your device and in your own iCloud. It's like keeping your birthday cake in your own fridge. We don't collect or store your birthday data on our servers because we know how important it is to keep your special day special—and secret, if you wish.

RussTag:

Now, here's where things get interesting. If you choose to create an online RussTag to share your birthday celebrations with friends, we'll need to collect some basic info: a name (doesn't have to be your full name) and your birthday preferences. This data will be uploaded and semi-public, meaning it's like shouting into a friendly but slightly chaotic forest—people can hear you, but they can't necessarily find you.

Data Storage for RussTag:

Your online RussTag data is stored using Google Firebase. Even if you decide to create an online RussTag, only your RussTag, chosen name, and birthday preferences (free text) will be saved. This data is never sold. Think of your RussTag like a party invitation: you want everyone to know about the cake, but not where you hide the spare key.

Privacy Tips:

While creating your RussTag is totally optional, we recommend not sharing sensitive information like your home address or phone number. Your RussTag is a fun way to share your birthday cheer without oversharing.

What We Don't Collect:

We don't collect, store, or peek at your birthday data unless you decide to create a RussTag. Your local and iCloud-stored data is all yours, just like your secret honey stash.

Contact Us:

If you have any questions, concerns, or just want to share a good honey recipe, feel free to reach out to us. We're here to help, and we promise not to buzz too much.

Reach us at: simonapoasc@gmail.com

Conclusion:

Thanks for using the Russ App! We hope your birthdays are filled with joy, laughter, and maybe a bit of honey. Remember, your privacy is as important to us as the perfect birthday gift—so we've got your back.

Happy Celebrating!
